THE WESTERN CAMPS.

EXCURSION TO LORETO.

It is a remarkable circumstance that a place so famous in the last century as Loreto should to-day be so little known. We write of Loreto and a pleasure trip to its magnificent camps, yet, before we begin our story, we find its necessary to explain to our readers where Loreto is, as, beyond the members of our party, few know anything of it, or whereabouts it lies.

Loreto is the name of a large district of Indian estancia land to the West of Melincue, where for ages the savages had their "toldos," and at whose great lakes they watered their horses and cattle. So far back as 1759, the Indians mustered very powerful in this great pasture prairie, and a memorable battle between them and the Government troops was fought in that year on the very spot where, last Saturday, we picknicked. The fight lasted the whole day, resulting in the complete defeat of the savage and the triumph of General Arrascaete who received from the Government, in recognition of his great victory, a grant of 300 square leagues of land thereabouts. Since that memorable battle a strong fort or "fortin" has been kept at Loreto, with varied fortune; at times the Indians chased the soldiers away and held the fort, but only to be again attacked by the Christians; and so the history of this remarkable place ran until Gen. Roca's epoch, when, with a long pull, and a strong pull, and a pull all together the Indians were entirely swept from those camps, and now the cattle estancieros and sheepfarmer graze their flocks and herds in the district.

The Loreto camps adjoin the Venado Tuerto lands which, some two years ago, were sold with such great success at auction in this city; they are of the same character, identical pasture, and with the exception that they have more "lagunas" and have been for so very many years stocked with mares and cows by the Caciques, they may be regarded in every sense as the same as those of the Venado Tuerto.

Our party assembled at 4 a.m. on Thursday morning at the Plaza Once station, the object in starting so early being to dine on the Venado Tuerto at Mr Turner's that night. Our party consisted of the following:—

Mr Mrs and the Misses (2) Fair.

Mr and Mrs E Casey and Miss Gahan.

Mr and Mrs J Casey, Miss Brown and Miss Bollasty.

Mr George Cooper, Southern RR. Mr Huxtable id.; Dr W Galbraith, Messrs Runciman, Tetley, Tebbut, Grant, C. Krabbe, Davis, Kimball, Mooney, O'Farrell, Kleppenbach, Mooney, W Casey, Rourke, Maxwell, R Murphy, J B Gahan &c.

We arrived at Lujan at 6.30, where we coffeed, and after a few minutes delay pushed on, striking out on the new Pergamino branch, this being our first run over this new line. The chacras about Lujan have grown wonderfully during late years and now extend for 3 leagues on all sides. We passed the fine chacra of a farmer who this season made 120,000 m/c in "lino" farming. At 7 a.m., we shot by the Carlos Keen station, where a new town is springing up; the maize fields hereabouts have suffered very much from the locusts, and the country in general presents a dried-up appearance, and is greatly in need of rain. At 7.30 we passed Ascuenaga station which faces the town of Giles. The land on which the station is built is the free gift to the Government of Mr Cunningham.

We are now passing through perhaps the richest sheepfarming district of the camps of Buenos Aires. We see, from the windows of the Governor's express railway car, the magnificent estancias of Messrs Geo. and Edw. Morgan, P. Wheeler, Mrs Mooney, N O'Donnell, and the farfamed Chapeaurouge estancia in the distance, now the property of Mr J. Scully. We stopped at the San Antonio de Areco Station for a few minutes. This little town of such pleasant memories seems buried in thick foliage; the trees have grown so thickly along the slopes of the river and the edges of the chacras that the town is hardly visible from the Railway. The fine land that runs at the back of the station, once belonged to Messrs Thomas and James Donohoe, who sleep for ever with the rude forefathers of the hamlet. As we cross the river we enter the lands of Martinez, which are indeed very bare; not a particle of grass is to be seen hereabouts, and the sheep and cattle for the most part have been sent outside. These camps are considered the very best in this province and cheap at 3 millions per league; yet to-day they are as bleak as the plains of Arabia. The next land is the great estancia San Ramon, the property of Mr Michael Duggan, one of the best estates in the whole country. At the end of the land is the railway station called, in compliment to Don Miguel who gave the land, "estacion Duggan." The station is on wheels, being the only one of the kind we saw in our trip. Some of the camps hereabouts present signs of recovery, large thistle beds and young clover fields, but as a rule all these camps are in a truly wretched state, and the pasturages seem to have been burnt up with drought and eaten down to the very root.

It seemed to us perfect madness to be keeping cows and sheep on those lands, when but a few leagues out the camps are covered with grass up to the horses' knees, and water can be had a few yards from the surface. Mr. Uriosto's fine property, Don Domingo Martinez's monte, and Mr. John Duggan's estancia are all passed by the train. We next pass station Captn. Sarmiento and run through the great Molina camps, now the properties of Messrs. Ham. Mrs. Cunningham and others of similar nationality. At 9.15 we reached Arrecifes, one of the most smiling of our camp towns and beautifully situated on a hill. Mr. William Mooney's estancia is close to the railway, and as it has rained hereabouts everything looks blither and better; estacion Anchorena is centred on the great estancia of Don Juan. The run from here out to Pergamino we made in double quick time, and our express train hauled up at that station at 2 few minutes after 11 o'clock. Carringes were in waiting to convey us to the hotel, where we found a splendid breakfast in readiness. Nothing could be better or more exact than the arrangements. Whilst breakfasting at the hotel the horn of the omnibus men was heard in the street, and at noon sharp, with two diligences, one carriage, and say 192 horses, posted at the various post houses along the road, we started for Hinojo, the name of Mr. Turner's estancia on the Venado Tuerto.

It may be truthfully said that this Pergamino branch runs through the flower of the Buenos Aires camps and every league along this line is to-day cheap at 2,500,000 m/c. Strange to say, the experienced farmers who formed our party were all of accord, that the very barest camps we passed through were the best, and that in the winter they would surpass every other camp in this province. We stepped from the train satisfied that Mr Casey is right when he asserts that our sheepfarming and cattle business has now reached an importance that calls for 2,000 square leagues fresh camp every year. All along our route and even before we left the train, we met with flocks of sheep and troops of cattle whose owners with horses and bullock-carts were driving their stock to the outside lands. Close to the Pergamino RR. station we passed a moving 'rodeo' of cattle, about 2,000 head, they were indeed in miserable condition, but when they reach the outside lands, if there is a good supply of water they will soon come round. Possibly the most remarkable feature of this extremely dry season is the superabundant supply of fat capones. This winter all the "graserias" in the country will resume working, as there will be no other way to move off all the fat stock. The great summer drought this year will ultimately prove beneficial, inasmuch as it will result in the scattering of thousands of head of horned cattle on our frontier lands where the average increase is 40 per cent, whilst, had the cattle remained inside, the increase would not reach even 10 per cent.

In this trip to Loreto we found many new subjects for our pen—subjects that we shall embrace with caution, being aware that truth in many instances will seem exaggeration, and that many will ascribe to us a wilful intention to write up lands soon to be offered for sale. Such, however, is neither our object nor our aim; and amidst the sneers of pessimists and others, who never believe that any tide in this country leads to fortune, we shall write and tell simply of what we saw—camps that in 1876 were not considered worth the cost of the title-deeds are to-day worth 10,000 pats. per league, and land which but 18 months ago was hawked about this market, first offered at 1500 pats., and then at 1000 pats., and for which not a single buyer could be found, are to-day covered with cattle and sheep, and for which the owner has refused an offer of $300,000 m/c per league.

For twenty long years we have been writing about Melincue and the Indians. Thrice happy change!—we now write of Melincue and the sheepfarmers.

The Maskelyne's Mails.

London, February 3d.

To-day the Bill relating to members of former reigning families in France will be introduced in the French Senate. The Temps says Thursday's debate in the Chamber shows that that body has lost all 'sang froid.' It hopes that the Senate will not give way to the vertigo which seems to have seized the Government and the other House.

In the French Senate yesterday the Bill voted by the Chamber abolishing oaths in courts of justice was rejected. An amendment was, however, agreed to, according to which, while the oath is retained, anybody objecting to it may make a simple affirmation.

It is announced from Paris that M. Duclerc is now out of danger, and that the improvement in the health of M. Fallieres continues, though rest is still required.

Our Berlin Correspondent telegraphs that the Emperor William is suffering from a severe cold, and that his indisposition causes considerable anxiety.

Our Correspondent at Cairo telegraphs that Colonel Hicks with his staff left there yesterday for the Soudan. He will take 350 Turks as an escort from Suez.

Further information has been received at the Admiralty from Colonel Warren respecting the murder of Professor Palmer and his party. A funeral service had been read at the place where the murder actually occurred. Colonel Warren is expected shortly to return to Suez.

A telegram from Bombay states that owing to a groundless alarm of fire at a factory there the workpeople made a rush for the doors, and twenty-three women were crushed to death.

Yesterday the Duke of Albany, installed at Colchester Lord Brooke, M.P, as Grand Master of the Order of Freemasons for the province of Essex. His Royal Highness was accompanied by Lord Wolseley.

Mr. Chamberlain, M.P., was present yesterday at a special meeting of the Swansea Chamber of Commerce, convened to present an address of welcome and congratulation to the right hon. gentleman. In reply, Mr. Chamberlain spoke of the value of Chambers of Commerce, and the useful information they were able to afford to the department over which he presided. It was impossible for any one individually to ascertain all that was going on without the aid of Chambers in various parts of the country.

A Dublin correspondent furnishes an outline of the evidence which is to be given to-day in that city with respect to the Phœnix Park murders. It appears that while Mr. Forster had been twice marked out for death and escaped, the assassination of Lord F. Cavendish was not preconcerted, and he lost his life through his endeavours to defend Mr. Burke, who had long been sentenced for execution by the Assassination Club.

The Rev. Isaac Nelson, M.P. for Mayo, has announced his intention of resigning his seat shortly.

According to the return of the expenses incurred at the recent election for Wigan, the Hon. Algernon Egerton, M.P., expended £1,152, and Mr. Walter Wren £1,067.

Yesterday the Lord Mayor presided at a meeting held at the Mansion House in support of the Society for the Relief of Distress in the Metropolis. The Duke of Connaught, in moving the first resolution, earnestly appealed for assistance in enabling this organization to continue its valuable work.

Mr. E. Birkbeck, M.P., chairman of the Executive Committee of the International Fisheries Exhibition, which is to be opened on the 1st of May, was present at a luncheon in the Albert Hall yesterday afternoon. The hon. member called attention to a statement of the Duke of Edinburgh (the president of the exhibition) that the Queen would, if her engagements permitted, open the Structure, and expressed a hope that the expectation would be fulfilled. The building stands on the site of the Horticultural Gardens, South Kensington.

At yesterday's meeting of the Metropolitan Board of Works it was resolved to ask the Home Secretary to introduce a bill to bring all petroleum under public regulation and supervision, and to prohibit its storage in large quantities in nornear cities and towns except under stringent regulations. It was stated that there were permanently stored within the metropolitan area from fifteen hundred thousand to two million gallons petroleum.

A Sportsman's Exhibition was opened at the Agricultural Hall, Islington, yesterday. At a luncheon in the afternoon, Mr. John H. Rafferty, managing director, announced that the prospects of the undertaking were exceedingly good; and that while a number of new inventions were shown the exhibits were greatly in advance of those of last year.

Another heavy gale visited the British Isles yesterday, extending over a considerable portion of the Kingdom. In the Channel the storm raged with much violence, and many shipping disasters are reported from the coasts. Temperature ranged from 48 degrees at Dover to 37 at Sumburgh Head.

Sir E. W. Stafford, in presiding at the annual meeting of the New Zealand Loan and Mercantile Agency Company, drew attention to the fact that the accounts from the colony up to the very latest moment were of the most gratifying character. The temporary depression which some two years or two years and a half ago existed had entirely disappeared. The operations of the colonists and settlers in every branch of business were being prosecuted with an amount of vigour and heartiness which had hardly ever before obtained.

In the stock markets yesterday foreign Government issues were firmer and advanced from ¼ to ½ per cent., but home railway stocks were flat. Great Northern and Lancashire and Yorkshire fell from ¾ to 1 per cent. upon the announcement of the dividends on those stocks at 6 per cent. per annum and 5 per cent. respectively. American railway stocks receded from ⅛ to 4¾, and Mexican Railway Ordinary 1¼ per cent. Consols closed steady at 102 to ½ for money, and 102¼ to ⅜ for the account. £8,000 in gold was sent into the Bank of England.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

THE ANNUAL FARCE.

February 2, 1883.

Here we are in February, A.D. 1883. Alternate fogs, gales, wet and sunshine, and the old thing comes round again: University Boat Race, Waterloo Cup, Grand National, Two Thousand Guineas. Opening of Parliament, the Queen leaves Osborne, the Queen arrives at Windsor. And how soon will it be—the Queen departs for Balmoral? and once again the curtain will drop. The only comforting faith is in a plurality of worlds, which gives a fellow some hope of variety. After eighteen hundred centuries of books, laws and sermons, are we any better? Have we not now, as in the first thirties, imprisoned Krapotkine for preaching a new Gospel, and do not the fingers of the law itch to crucify Reclus, the learned author of "The Earth—the anarchist, who is quietly pursuing his high thoughts in his retreat on the banks of Lake Geneva. Who would not, like Lord Bramwell, have a "sneaking regard" for socialism—or even anarchy in its philosophic sense—when in these days Government is still only the strife of paltry interests of classes or of individuals? You people who are busy with your everyday lives, will hardly believe what many reflecting men think without saying, that Communism will be the regime of the twentieth century.

Mr. Booth—or rather General Booth—writes an unaffected letter to the Times to deny that the Salvation Army have been aggressive in Switzerland, or that they have organised processions. This may be, but, unhappily, in the very same number of that journal in which Mr. Booth's letter appears, is a telegram from Geneva, announcing that the windows of the offices of the Salvation Army had been smashed. It is true a few gentlemen in Geneva and Neufchatel have formed themselves into a body-guard to protect Miss Booth from insult, but it is plain that the authorities take the part of the mob in their attacks on the Salvation people, for, as a Swiss magistrate observed, he cannot believe in the efficacy of a religious movement which is propagated by people who dress themselves up as soldiers. The same opinion exists to a large extent here. It is not understood why these people should, even with the best intentions, be allowed to parade the streets with flags and music, when religious processions are denied to Roman Catholics, to Orangemen, or Ritualists. it is not a question of religious tolerance one way or the other, but of police. It may be said that Christianity itself was once a "gutter religion," and that its apostles were, by the superstitious world, despised as "brawlers." That is so; but if they were brawlers in the style of their modern imitators, the magistrates in Rome or Jerusalem were perfectly justified in persecuting them. There is no evidence that they were brawlers in that sense, and their hymns were sublime, not ribaldry, and their assumed gift of speech was reverenced as a solemn endowment, and was not like the published qualification of a canvasser in the Salvation Army, that he should possess the gift of the gab and "have the Holy Ghost." I quite acknowledge that the brawling and disturbances are neither here, nor in Switzerland, nor in Calcutta, the fault of the Salvation Army, but of the mob, and a very detestable mob that will set up its back, like a dog or a child, against anything strange, or that will seek any excuse for riot or persecution. Of such, is composed the "Skeleton Army" in London. If the Salvationists are allowed to parade the streets with red and blue flags, the "Skeletons" think they are entitled to do the same with yellow and white flags. The meeting of the two, and the inevitable fight, is only a question of time, and if these things are permitted to continue, the casual street rows gradually will become organised combats. On Sunday next the police are informed that there is to be a grand gathering of the Skeleton Army who are to invade the "Grecian" in Islington, where the Salvationists worship in great strength.

What is to be done? Manifestly, for the sake of public peace, the two armies must propagate their opinions in private, or at least within doors, or, like Wesley, they may make meeting houses of the fields and stone quarries.

Mr. Booth appears to be, like Mr. Moody, a man of good common sense and of determination, and, as far as we know yet, he is honest if shrewd. His latest device of opening a bank in connection with the general operations of the "army chest," is likely to pay, for there are many fanatics who, at his invitation, have "lent unto the Lord" their capital. There are many more who will lend on the same security at 5 per cent. during their lives, hoping for a still higher rate of interest in another world.

The work to which these people contribute is, in Mr. Booth's own words, the suppression of vice, drunkenness and debauchery amongst the classes that our legislative assemblies, and, it is to be presumed, our church institutions cannot reach. To accomplish this he parodies the Pentecost, and the words of our hymns and Liturgy; and he seems to think that what Christ did not accomplish in His lifetime—what eighteen centuries of preaching have failed to accomplish—he and his captains can accomplish in his and their time.

The Skeleton Army may be, and I think is, a thousand times more disreputable than the Salvationists, but in their rude way they may instinctively detect the fallacy of Mr. Booth's method, which is merely a repetition, in even a lower form of revivals of emotional religion that again and again have appeared in history, and always with the same fleeting effect.

The "Skeletons" may see, what the head of the Salvationist himself has announced, that 'assemblies'—our laws and political organisation—do not reach the masses—who, far better off than they were centuries ago, or even a century ago, do not receive their fair share of the capital they produce, and of the comforts and improvements around them. Take, for example, drunkenness. It prevailed in this country amongst the higher classes—nobles, ministers of state and their wives—a hundred years ago. It was general amongst the middle classes in our own time. From these classes the vice has all but disappeared. Will General Booth tell us that this was due to fresh Pentecostal endowments, or to preaching? If so, those possessed of the gift might, whilst they were about it, have purged us of other vices—selfishness, fraud and cupidity—which still exist. Is it not clear that whilst in the cultivated classes religion has been undermined, the vice I speak of has disappeared simply from changes in manners, brought about by a change and economic condition, which have offered counter-attractions—moral, intellectual and emotional—attractions still denied to the uneducated masses pent up amid dismal surroundings.

If General Booth has looked at the subject in this light, and likely he has, we can all agree with him that "assemblies" do not reach the masses, and it is for that reason that year by year, we read of the premonitory signs of still another session of Parliament with bitterness of heart and all the anguish of hope deferred.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

March 2nd.

There are two kinds of public tranquillity; one proceeding from a respect for the laws accompanied by the political liberty of all classes of the community, and the other proceeding from the arbitrary assumption and retention of individual influence and power by violently stifling all opposition. The Standard never deigns to distinguish between the two so long as the peace is not broken. I think, however, that a public journal, although a foreign organ, and consequently to a certain extent independent, should identify itself to a legitimate length in the politics of the country it is printed in. No public journal representing a foreign element will be able to satisfy its readers and subscribers if it does not emit an independent opinion on the politics of the country, praising everything that is worthy of admiration and vituperating everything that is vicious and bad.

I think I can accompany the Standard to the length of agreeing that peace and tranquillity, whatever cause they spring from, are to be preferred, as a general rule, to revolutions, even when the latter are with the object of regaining rights and political liberty; but I am not with you at all when you vituperate the efforts of the opposition press, however violent the language they use, to change a political order of things under which one party not only absorbs violently all political power, but refuses to recognise its opponents as fellow-citizens. We, imperial foreigners, ought hardly to congratulate ourselves on a fact that we know in our conscience will lead to the inevitable result, not only in this country but in every other, of the destruction of public liberty and the advent of irresponsible caudillos. The history of every nation in the world, and particularly of the South American Republics, establishes the truth of this.

The Standard is a lover of peace; so are we all. But if peace proceeds from the stamping out of legitimate opposition, and the violent exclusion of citizens from their legal rights, we all know that sooner or later a reaction will take place, and our so-called peace will have been the remote but certain generator of strife and perhaps anarchy. Take this province of Santa Fé, for instance. We have any amount of the boasted peace the Standard so delights in, and what is the result? Misgovernment of the most wretched kind—the people a cypher—the whole of the public wealth, unaccounted for, in the hands of an irresponsible Executive, and public spirit and civic virtues non-existent.

Do you think that this state of things is satisfactory to the Chief Magistrate of the Republic? Not by any means; and the knowledge of this is kindling a flame here that heralds the downfall of the arbitrary power that dominates the province, and very possibly accompanied by violence and bloodshed. This is what our "peace" is bringing us to. The dominant party is now split into two factions—one headed by Dr. Iriondo, and the other by Mr. Bayo. It is pretty well surmised that the President of the Republic, in his desire to put an end to the disgraceful political situation of this province, in which one man has ruled supreme for so many years, is giving his moral support to Mr. Bayo, not probably with the idea of placing this personage in power, which would be a disaster, but to raise up a successful combination against Dr. Iriondo. So mote it be.

History has always a great deal to do in denouncing and correcting the errors of history. I find in one of the books that profess to give truthful anecdotes of great men the following about the death of Washington:—

"It is something singular that Washington drew his last breath in the last hour of the last day of the last week of the last month of the last year of the last century. He died on Saturday night, at twelve o'clock, December 31st, 1799."

Now the authentic biographies of Washington state that he died between ten and eleven o'clock at night on the 14th December, 1799; so that the statement I have copied is only correct as to the month, for 1799 is not the last year of the century. This is something of a popular error, making 99 the last year of a century: 1800 was the last year, as 1900 will be the last year of this century, and 1901 will be the first year of the twentieth century.

Our friends in the saintly city of Cordoba are ahead of your sleepy capitalists of Buenos Ayres. They have organized a strong company with sufficient capital to set up a big sugar plantation in Tucuman. It is called the "Cordoba and Tucuman Company." The best machinery is already on its way out. The estate they have bought possesses extensive forests and about 1000 "cuadras," or 4000 acres, susceptible of irrigation, 600 of which are rented to outside planters, who will sell their cane to the company. Native sugar is now in such demand in the country that the whole of last year's production of the Republic is already exhausted.

Is not the sentence of Captain Rawson for killing Lieutenant Alvarez (twelve months' imprisonment) rather curious? If he is guilty at all, the punishment is very slight; and if the amount of guilt is to be condoned by twelve months' imprisonment, it appears to be a proof of his entire innocence.

We have had a general downpour of a couple of hours that will do any amount of good.

The health of the city continues to be bad. The mortality is at least fifty per cent. over the normal rate. The mortality is principally amongst children.

SUGAR.

Tucuman, 27th Feby. 1883

To the Editor of the Standard.

Buenos Aires

Sir,

Confirming my last of 20th inst., I send you to-day's No. 1568 of La Razon. By publishing the paragraph of this paper that speaks about Santiago and Tucuman sugar cane, you would oblige me.

This paragraph shows clearly what a precious high opinion people here have about that "would be" competition of Santiago in sugar industry.

The fact, that immediately after having received the challenge, the editor of La Razon, Don Eurique Posse, could wire to Santiago that bets were offered here from 20 to 100 thousand pats speaks volumes.

Meantime it might perhaps put a damper on the fury of T. C., proving to him, that it is not the 'phrenological conditions' of your obedient servant, but that it is the opinion of a well-known 'Mr Everybody' here that considers ridiculous the idea of Santiago sugar cane being able to compete with that of Tucuman.

Yours truly

Subscriber.

INTERESTING QUESTION.

(FROM THE Razon)

On receipt of the telegram from Santiago which the reader will find at foot, we made it known to several of our principal cane-planters, amongst whom it caused the greatest astonishment, and some regarded it as a joke, as it is truly both pretentious and ridiculous to compare the lands of Santiago with those of Tucuman for cane growing purposes.

At first it was suggested to take no notice of the matter, but eventually a different view of the question was adopted, and we were authorised to answer the telegram in the terms at foot, which we did yesterday.

Even the least experienced persons will consider that the joke, (it deserves no other name) contains statements that are very far from true, as such means should not be employed.

Here are the telegrams—

Santiago 25th

To the Director of the Razon

Public report from your province is unfair in running down the leavy canefields of Santiago, describing them as inferior to those of Tucuman.

The moment has, therefore, arrived to throw light on the subject, and, to this end, the undersigned, duly authorised by the cane-planters of this province, proposes, through you, that there shall be a trial of the canes of both provinces, on the following plan:—

First—Each party shall send in an equal quantity of violet canes, each to be 80 centimetres in length, to be tried in graduation.

Second—An equal quantity of violet canes to be tried as regards weight, irrespective of length.

A Committee named by both parties shall decide the issue, and the bets shall be handed to the hospitals of the winning province.

Thomas R. Sanchez

I am authorised to accept your challenge for any sum from 20,000 to 100,000 patacons, for canes of 1 metre in length, amount of wager to be deposited in the Bank.

THE DEBT OF URUGUAY

A leading subscriber has handed us the following crispy article from the London World. Happily this Republic has long since emerged from the pickle in which Uruguay now finds herself; and, although our London colleague's remarks are severe, it is just as well that our neighbours should know what is thought of their Government in the Capital of the World:

"There is about £3,000,000 of it, and, after paying the full interest and sinking fund for a short term of years, the Uruguayans took a rest, much to the disgust of the bondholders. By and by the worthy debtors resumed payment—it was in 1878, we believe—but at the rate of 2½ per cent only, and without a sinking fund. The coupons that had, up to that date, been defaulted upon were created into a little additional debt of about £370,000, and enjoyed, in that capacity, 2½ per cent with the rest. This little arrangement was to last till February of the current year, when full payment was to be resumed on the entire debt, including that produced by the overdue coupons. A gentleman named Morice was, we believe, the author, or originator, of this arrangement; and it pleased the bondholders so well that he felt quite indignant when, on his return from Montevideo, they did not vote him a nice little present of a few thousand pounds. But they were prudent, these bondholders. February 1883 is at hand, and no 6 per cent in sight. Quite the contrary. The 2½ per cent arrangement has done so well that the Uruguayans want it continued for another ten years, and offer an additional half per cent as sinking fund by way of a bribe. The bondholders met last week under the presidency of one of the partners in Thomson, Bonar & Co.'s firm, which first fathered the loan here, and indignantly rejected these terms. They may take 3 per cent interest for five years if coerced; but 2½ per cent for another ten—never! In vain they were told that Uruguay had a 'deficit' on its budget. 'Let it reduce its bloated army, then,' they shouted back. 'We want our money.' That's right, gentlemen; Uruguay is in no danger of turning her back upon you, so you can hold out for your pound of flesh, can't you? Get up an expedition to coerce her if she fails to do as you say. 'Deficits?' These are always to be had to order in wretched South American States. So ask away, and when Uruguay says, 'You shall have nothing for your impudence,' take fits with amazement.

THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

We must congratulate this Government on its very spirited enterprise in purchasing and exporting for breeding purposes some of our most valuable representatives of the stud. Within the last two months the gentleman entrusted with the selection of thorough breds for the Republic has displayed excellent judgment in the choice of entire horses and mares, which considering their high class, and owing to the temporary depression in value of bloodstock in England, have comparatively speaking been secured for moderate prices. Amongst the cracks already shipped we notice three in particular. Exeter would be a desirable acquisition to any stud, European or otherwise. Combining grand size with style, true shape and action, this well tried stayer, who possesses our most highly prized strains of blood, can hardly fail to establish in his new home a race of stock such as has not hitherto been seen in South America. St. Helena, the nearly own sister to Hermit, being by a son of Newminster the sire of our leading stallion, out of Seclusion (Hermit dam), was recently taken at a considerable outlay, and has already left England to be mated with Exeter. At present she is in foal to Scottish Chief, and, judging by the unprecedented successes of Seclusion's daughters as brood mares, there is every prospect of her sustaining the family reputation, whilst her expatriation must be regarded as a loss to the country. St. Helena leaves at Middle Park a yearly filly by Scottish Chief which is spoken of as first class. Alameda, by Pedro Gomez out of Nightjar, by Wild Dayrell, accompanied St. Helena. She was recently purchased at auction, and generally allowed to be one of the bargains at the sale of the late Mr Gretton's breeding stud. She is in a foal to Isonomy. We heartily wish the stock may be landed safely, and every success attend the venture.

—Bells Life, January 27th, 1883.

[Ed. Note—All the above animals we understand were purchased in England by Mr C. T. Getting and other gentlemen, named by the Government, and these animals are now at S. Catalina. D. Diego Getting of this city is the active agent in this business and has brought out some of the finest animals in this country, amongst others the blood stock for D. Carlos Casares, Dr. Frias and others.]

MR. CUMBERLAND'S MIND-READING.

HENRY WARD BEECHER AND STEELE MACKAYE USED AS SUBJECTS BY AN ENGLISH EXPERT.

Mr Stuart Cumberland arrived in this city Tuesday from England, and will make a tour through the country, lecturing on "Thought-Reading," and giving experiments on both that subject and on Spiritualism. Last night, at the Everett House, Mr Cumberland delivered a lecture to a small audience of clergymen and physicians, and showed how rapping could be produced by the medium independent of spirits. Among those present were the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, the Rev. George H. Hepworth, Dr George M. Beare, Dr A B Ball, Mr Steele Mackaye, Dr Meredith Clymer and Messrs Pond and Edwards, Mr Cumberland's Managers. Mr Cumberland said before beginning his lecture and experiments that he did not believe in Spiritualism and that the secret of thought-reading lay in the fact that if any one concentrates his whole mind on any one thing, 'any' other person with whom the thinker comes in physical contact will receive an impression of what the subject is thinking of. Mr Beecher was selected by the lecturer as his subject and, after having been blindfolded, was asked to fix his mind on any particular thing in the parlor. Mr Cumberland then took Mr Beecher's left hand, and placing it to his forehand marched Mr. Beecher around the room for a few minutes, and then suddenly letting go his hand walked to one of the gentlemen present and selected that gentleman's spectacles as the object of Mr Beecher's attention. His guess was correct.

Mr Cumberland then handed Mr. Beecher a $20 gold piece and asked him to mark with it any two places in the room, directing him to fix his thoughts on one mark at a time. Mr Cumberland then left the room and when he returned took Mr Beecher's hand and found the two places Mr. Beecher had marked on the wall, and in the order in which he had marked them. Mr Cumberland then offered to tell anyone who would give him their mind any part of his body in which he felt pain. Dr Beard gave Mr Cumberland his hand, and much to the surprise of the doctor his gouty toe was discovered. Ten playing-cards were then placed on the table in two rows, each card being a short distance from the next one, by which Mr Cumberland proceeded to tell the number of a bank note in a certain person's possession. Several futile attempts were made, which Mr Beecher declared was probably owing to the fact that Mr Cumberland had little knowledge of cards. A nine of spades was finally selected as the first number of the note, and then a three of hearts, a nine of clubs and an ace of hearts, making the number of the note No. 9,391. The same method was followed in this experiment as in the others; that is, the subject gave the lecturer his hand, according to agreement, and thought in succession of each figure in the number of the note. Mr Beecher was then asked to look at the date of a 1-cent coin Mr Cumberland had not seen, and after giving Mr Cumberland his hand to imagine he saw the date three times its size on a piece of paper pinned against the wall. Mr Cumberland then traced the date of the cent—1861—on the paper.

The subject of Spiritualism was then taken up by the lecturer. Mr Cumberland explained that Spiritualists perform their tricks on the well-known defects of sight, hearing and feeling. Mr Steele Mackaye had his eyes blindfolded and could seldom tell where the sound produced by clicking two silver dollars close to his person came from.—New York Paper.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The Loreto excursionists returned on Sunday, some tanned a becoming bronze, others burned like lobsters with the sun. We give in another column the first chapter about the trip, which was a highly enjoyable one.

We are quite tired of the attempted wit of our colleague the Diario, whose description of our trip to the Loreto is not worth even a perusal. We had not the pleasure of meeting the Diario editor on 'Change or exchanging a word with him about our white hat, or the trip in question. The whole chapter is one of stuff and nonsense, and we are much surprised that the editor in chief of the Diario fills his columns with such trash.

We give some news by the Maskelyne in another column. It is not quite so late as we had last week, but is interesting. Very often it is not the 'latest' papers that contain the most interesting details.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mr. Michael Barry, for many years a much respected resident of this city. We offer his bereaved family our heartfelt condolence. The funeral leaves 25 Calle Iuzaingo this afternoon at 4 p.m. for the Recoleta.

Sunday was rather a dull day and looked like rain for a few hours, but not a drop fell, and people have now made up their minds to do without it till the 15th, when a Second Deluge is looked for.

The English retreat at the Rio Bamba Convent began yesterday evening and will end on Saturday morning. Hours of instructions 10, 3, and 7 o'clock.

We cordially salute the Correo de las Niñas on its reappearance in the Editorial Bus. It opens with a screaming leader entitled "El Dandy y el Farsante"—The Swell and the Snob—which is so funny, yet so true, that we intend to translate it, to make our readers laugh.

The attempt made to reform the Cabildo clock is a wretched failure. On Saturday the dial facing Calle San Martin was taken down, and the four lamps inside were visible at night. Everybody expected to see something grand next day; but oh! the cure was far worse than the disease: The old dial, scraped, is put up again, and is now of that exquisite sea-sick green tint to be seen on the visages of ocean travellers during a heavy gale, rendering it more difficult than ever to read the hour. In the name of decency, why not put up pure white dials that can be seen plainly by day and by night.

Gentlemen, bachelors and widowers, here's a stunning chance for you. We would not mention it, but that we find it in the columns of our esteemed and valued musical contemporary, El Mundo Artistico. Madlle. Borghi Mamo, the spoiled pet of our operatic public last year, has unbosomed herself to a chum of her own sex in this city, and coyly admits that she is on the look-out for a husband, and does not despair of some day finding a gentleman to fill that highly enviable position. It is indispensable that the lucky man be a gentleman, either born or bred, as the fair singer declares she would sooner die an old maid than have anything to do with "gente grosera!" Boito, thou false one—thou who took back the heart that thou gavest, and in such a very bluff way too—take that also. What is thy anguish to me?

We received yesterday the prospectus of La Alianza, a kind of Bank which it is proposed to establish to assist building operations in this city and other parts. Amongst these other parts is the new capital of the province, a decidedly risky place for building or any other enterprise, being too near the capital of the Republic.

War has broken out between Tucuman and Santiago del Estero. It is, however, a sweet war, and, although cane juice will flow in torrents, there is no danger of broken skulls. See another column. We are quite impartial in the matter, but warn our colleague the Razon against that greatest of all mistakes in love or war—despising your opponent.

Captain Drake is supposed to be the original of Captain Dugarty in the "Legend of Montrose." The name gave rise to a pleasant mot by Baron Alderson. He and Lord Campbell were differing at a dinner about its pronunciation—the latter saying Dalgetty. It was settled bp Baron Alderson remarking—"I thought that you Scotchmen always laid the emphasis on get."

The bloated army of Banda Oriental, of which the London Bondholders complain so bitterly, grows certainly at an astonishing pace. In 1881 that redoubtable force had 55 Colonels; it has now 119!

385,000 women earn their own bread in London in various walks of life, from teachers to washerwomen. Of the former there are 14,000; of the latter 44,000.

We feel great pleasure in welcoming back Mr Thomas Drysdale, who arrived on Saturday from Cordoba, after a month's sojourn in the heart of the Sierras, which he enjoyed very much.

It is reported from Rio that the Emperor Dom Pedro received the Argentine Envoy Sr Quesada in the most cordial manner, and it is considered not improbable that the result of Mr Q's mission will be an amicable settlement of the Misiones Question.

Family Fair says:

The Queen may recall with some complacency her remarks to the Bishop of Newcastle on Canon Ashwell's death. Her Majesty asked who was going to continue the life of his father. "My eldest brother, Madam," was the reply. "Has he the necessary qualifications?" asked the Queen. "His family think not, Madam." "Then why do you let him do it?" said Her Majesty. Because my brother is obstinate and will have his own way." "Do your hear that?" said Her Majesty, turning to the Princess Beatrice.

The blood-thirsty feeling amongst estancieros in reference to the scandalous increase in the provincial Contribucion Directa this year is increasing, and, if they were of sterner st

SARSAPARILLA

For the certain and radical cure of all those diseases which arise from

Impurity of the Blood.

It is very foolish—indeed it amounts to imbecility—to attempt experiments with inferior preparations composed of worthless drugs or of such indigenous plants or herbs whose ordinary effects are not confirmed by Medical Science, whilst the malady with which you are attacked is daily gaining ground in your system.

Putaside all thoughts of these and take instead and at once, a remedy guaranteed by actual experience and by the medical faculty all over the world, to be unquestionably the most efficacious in all Diseases of the Blood or Blood Poisoning.

Dr AYER'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla is a well-known remedy of 40 years standing, and is prescribed by all eminent physicians throughout the world. Hundreds of thousands of sick and infirm persons have realized the benefits arising from the use of this truly honest medicine; and they are so many evidences of its incomparable virtues and of the good results obtained by their faithful use.

Testimonial Fund.

At the General Meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Buenos Ayres, held on the 31st January, 1883, attention was called to the near approach of the time when the Rev. James Smith's official connection with the Church and people of Buenos Ayres would cease. The propriety of some manifestation being made by the Community on this occasion, to mark its appreciation of a life's work, having been mooted and unanimously recognised, it was resolved that such manifestation should assume the form of a pecuniary gift to the Rev. Gentleman, and a Committee was at the same time nominated with the view of carrying such resolution into effect.

In pursuance of this resolution, the Committee beg to inform the Community who sympathise with them in the matter, that Subscription Lists for signatare will be found at the undermentioned places.

Other Lists will be forwarded to some of the outlying districts of Buenos Ayres and the Oriental Republic. Members residing at a distance, desirous of taking part in this manifestation, and who may not have access to any of these List-sheets, can obtain them upon application to the Honorary Secretary, David Methven jun., Calle Reconquista 89, who will also be ready to receive any particular subscription towards the same object up to March 15th, prox.

THE ONE THING NEEDFUL IN THE WIFE of a colonist is that she shall know how to make good bread, cakes and pastry, and to teach her servant to 'do likewise.' In order to perform this feat she must be sure of her leavening agent, and to this end she should eschew all those preparations of unknown makers, and use only such articles as Borwick's Baking Powder, which for nearly 40 years has stood the test of use in every part of the inhabited globe. Those who aim at the more artistic branches of culinary art, should try the Gold Medal Custard Powder, which is said on good authority to produce the most delicious custards, blancmanges, &c. without eggs, and at half the usual cost. No store should be without a good supply of these two articles. (5)

Operations were more active this morning than usual. Fifteen hundred arrobas of "pasto fuerte" wool were sold at $76 ¾, and 450 @ at $74 ¾. Borrega wool was sold at prices ranging between $42 and 65 ¾. Messrs. Unzue sold a fine lot of about 800 @ at $92 ¾. The market is active for good qualities of wool, but as usual inferior and middling qualities find no ready demand.

Mr. J. L. Ocampo has taken the splendid barraca of the Mirador, and Mr. J. Buckel takes over Mr. Ocampo's barraca.

The great topic of conversation in the South Plaza, this morning, was the report that two barracas were on the eve of discontinuing business in wool. The barracas in question, it appears have been bought by the railway.

Important transactions in Sovereigns were reported this afternoon; the rate was 1¾ o/o premium. Some exchange was als reported done in the morning at 49 5/16.

Everybody on 'Change had plans of the Lorcto lands, which will be sold off by auction this month.

Speculation during afterhours ruled very dull: a few hundred shares changed hands at 102¾ and 103 for the end of the month ex-dividend. The market closed slightly firmer, but there is a heavy feeling in the stock. The vitality of the speculation seems to be ebbing fast, and although there is not much room for any important fall, the prospects of any heavy rise are very problematical.

Advices from Montevideo state that the sudden reaction in the favourite speculative stock of the market, the Deuda Amortizable, has been followed by a falling tendency. Prices fell to-day from 22 and a fraction to 21.

Telegrams from Rosario received to-day announce that it rained during ten hours.

Mr Nordenholz leaves to-morrow for Santa Fe.

The splendid pavement of the sidewalk in front of the Carabassa Bank is much admired by all the neighbors of the Calle Reconquista and Calle Piedad. A popular German broker states that the pavement comes from Father-land on the banks of the Rhine; they make the mixture and by means of hydraulic pressure it is pressed to such a degree that it becomes as hard as silex, but it has the advantage of being less brittle. We commend the pavement to the Lord Mayor and to architects; the German club, the fashionable Turn-Verein will employ this pavement in its contemplated establishments. The Carabassa Bank building is advancing rapidly, it promises to be one of the monuments of the city.

The sales at afterhours were:—

National Bank Shares—

Do seller at 103 disp. cum div.

Our esteemed colleague La Campaña—a paper we recommend to every cattle-grazer and sheepfarmer—has an able article on the very deficient statements of the statistical office of this Province. Thus it appears that the Statistical Office has informed the public in the short interval of a twelvemonth that this Province possesses 70 millions, 90 millions and finally only 57 millions of sheep. Such a wide discrepancy in the total of sheep is ludicrous. The first computation of the Office was 70 millions; when this total was drawn up it was surmised that sheepfarmers had purposely misinformed the agents of the Statistical Office, and reduced the number of their stock by 35 o/o; starting from this basis it was calculated that the Province of Buenos Aires possessed 90 millions sheep. It seems quite incomprehensible how the Office in question can now calculate the stock at only 57 millions. Mr. Huss's calculations in the Campaña may be considered the most accurate; he calculates the stock of sheep in this Province at 73 millions, and in the whole country at 98 to 100 millions.

Advices from Bragado state that cattle are in fair condition, and that camps are covered with "cardo negro", black thistle. It is yet an unsettled question whether this thistle is injurious to land or not. Camp fires in Lincoln were reported, but the news requires confirmation.

Camps outside near Melincué are in splendid condition; it has rained abundantly thereabouts, and the roads are very heavy. Lands on the Venado Tuerto are very dry, but there is plenty of grass, and animals are in good condition.

Advices from Pergamino state that the mixed camps of the district are in good condition, but the central parts are very dry. Animals in general are in fair condition. Starting from Pergamino all outside camps look splendid, whilst lands inside at the Fortin, Areco and nearer town are in a parched state; lands in many parts are very bare, and animals are being moved off.

Advices from Azul state that cattle and sheep are fat. The harvest of the partido has been most satisfactory, and the quality and size of the grain are quite exceptional this year. Stock is freely offered, but the demand is scarce and prices are low.

The following sales of stock and real estate are reported in Rio IV:—

450 fat bullocks at $40 Bol. each.
400 mules at $40 Bol. each for Chile.
1,300 head of cattle at reserved rates.
1,200 squares of land for $10,000, known as the Ordoñez estancia.
1,500 novillos at 18 Bol. each.

Advices from San Nicolas state that it has rained all around the district. An important sale of sheep from Cernada's establishment is reported at prices ranging between $22 and $26 ¾. Some "capones" were sold at $40 ¾ per head. Camps and cattle in fair condition.

Camps in Mercedes are very dry and large numbers of stock have been moved out of the district. Close on 200,000 sheep have been taken away.

Rain is very much wanted in Tapalque, 9 de Julio and Chascomus. From all outside districts advices report that large herds of cattle and flocks of sheep are being moved off from the inside districts.

All the above advices from the rural districts of this Province we clip from our colleague La Campaña. The tenor of same is satisfactory, and the inside camps are improving since the late slight rains; there is a general clamor for more rain.

El Jueves 15 de Marzo

A las 2 p.m.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y sin limitacion de ninguna clase, los mas afamados campos de la Provincia de Santa Fe conocidos por Loreto distantes unicamente 25 leguas de Pergamino, 6 de la colonia Iriondo, 10 de la colonia Alvear (La Tcolollina) 18 de la Estacion Portugas del Ferro Carril Central Argentino, 16 de la Cañada de Gomez, Estacion del mismo Ferro Carril y entre el Ferro Carril de Clark, el proyectado ramal del F. C. del O. desde el Pergamino al Rio 4° y el Oeste Santafesino. Estos campos lindan con los famosos y conocidos del Venado Tuerto y con estancias, como la de los Sres Ostendorp y Ca., Diego Alvear, heredero de Armstrong y otros.

Los campos que acaba de vender el Gobierno de la Provincia a 400,000 $ estan mas distantes de la Capital que estos que ofrecemos en venta.

Ademas con la rapidez que se esten construyendo los Ferro Carriles y ramales en la Republica demuestran claramente que en un corto tiempo la poblacion va a estenderse extraordinariamente y entonces toda la propiedad rural tiene que triplicar en valor, de manera que cuando llegue a venderse el ultimo plazo el comprador se encontrara con una propiedad valiosa.

La calidad del campo se garante igual al Venado Tuerto por lo tanto creemos inutil entrar en mayores descripciones sobre el terreno, sus pastos etc, ademas la persona que quiera ver y examinarlos puede toma la Galera que va del Pergamino al Hinojo ocurriendo por la pasage gratis al Sr D. Eduardo Casey Reconquista num. 80.

El campo sera dividido en lotes de ½ (media) legua teniendo el comprador el derecho de tomar cuatro leguas por el mismo precio.

Todos los lotes seran vendidos sin reserva ni ninguna clase al mas alto postor y el pago se hara una cuarta parte al contado y el resto en cuatro anualidades con el 7 o/o de interes.

Los planos de estos campos podran obtenerse del 20 del corriente Febrero en adelante ocurriendo a casa del Sr D. Eduardo Casey num. 80, o a nuestra casa Alsina 78.

NOTA—No olvidarse que el remate se efectuara aqui en la Capital Calle Alsina 78.

OTRA NOTA IMPORTANTE—En caso que varios compren un lote, se les escriturara separadamente á cada comprador hasta cien cuadras.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado, por orden terminante de su dueño, los campos arriba mencionados, situados en la Secciones III y IX de terrirorios Nacionales letras D, y C, numeros 11, 16 y 20.

El area total se compone de 10 leguas kilometricas, que pueden facilmente dividirse en 2 fracciones, una de 4 y la otra de 6 leguas y si los interesados los desean en lotes de dos leguas.

Esta seccion es una de la mas pobladas, debido a la bondad de sus pastos y calidad de sus tierras, adecuados para la cria del ganado vacuno y lanar.

Esta campo disto 3 leguas del pueblo General Acha, donde existen fuerzas Nacionales, y sabido es la importancia que tiene la inmediacion de un pueblo en estas alturas para que entremos aqui a demostrarlo.

Al costado mismo esta un Establecimiento, parte alambrado, del Sr. D Augusto Escandy, poblado por el señor Capdeville, con 2,500 vacas, 500 yeguas, y 3000 ovejas y los otros linderos son:

Augusto Escandy, Simon, Obligado, Hurtado y Martinez A. Meabe y otros.

Sin contar un numero crecido de nuevos pobladores que estan esperando que llueva para llevar las haciendas que tienen ya compradas.

Creemos por demas llamar la atencion de los interesados sobre la importancia que tendra estos campos una vez terminada la linea del Ferro Carril del Sud a Bahia Blanca.

Demostradas todas las ventajas solo nos queda decir que la base de ps. 30,000 $ m/c por legua fijada para la venta es sumamente baja, en vista de las recientes ventas que se han hecho de campos situados mucho mas afuera.

Los interesados pueden ocurrir a nuestra casa Alsina 78 para tomar mayores datos sobre estos campos.
